STRATEGIC TEEN ENRICHMENT PROGRAM

The Strategic Teen Enrichment Program, STEP, gathers people from around the community and different agencies to help teach kids practical life skills such as how to manage stress, how to handle different types of conflicts, good ways to handle emotional distress, the importance of education, money management, and more through interactive programs. STEP also offers tutoring to kids may need it along with access to the Y facility when the program is in session and busing from the student's school, in the Rome City School District, to the Y and will drop them off at home when the program concludes for the day. Other benefits of this free program include refreshments, food, and a free youth membership for those students who meet attendance requirements.

JR High STEP (Strough)
